III. Membership Update

We are half-way to our goal of 300 with 149 members. We see many of you at functions but you are not a member of the organization. We know this is an oversight you want to correct. This year is an election year at the National level. You must pay by July 15th to be eligible to vote. Our own Carolyn Jones is running for NAA President. Let your voice be heard. You may mail your dues to FAMU Alumni Association, P.O. Box 90306, Washington, DC 20090-0306. Local dues for regular members are $75.00 and for Life Members of the NAA $40.00. If you would like to have a membership envelope mailed to your address please call 301-249-8669 leave your name and mailing address.

IV. HBCU CONNECT LINKS UNIVERSITY GRADS WITH CHOICE EMPLOYERS IN ON-CAMPUS GUIDE

HBCU Connect, a once dot com community that burst into action linking black college graduates with an array of American companies, introduces its newest bridge, "HBCU CONNECT On-Campus Special Edition Employment Guide" First Annual Special Edition Employment Guide Columbus, OH (BlackNews.com) - HBCU CONNECT On-Campus magazine, a property of HBCU CONNECT LLC, introduces the first Annual Special Edition Employment Guide, the most complete directory of employers on Black college campuses available to date, this fall. The On-Campus Special Edition Employment Guide will offer an in-depth look at some top companies who are serious about hiring diverse talent, according to William R. Moss III, HBCU CONNECT president and CEO. "The annual guide will be packed with information most sought after by graduating seniors, based on their input, and on guidance and advice from alumni, faculty and staff," Moss said.
